MARRIAGE VOWS

My Bunny, where should I start? I've known you for almost 7 years now and had seen you been so many transformations. And no matter even if you are taba or payat, you are forever my beautiful bunny.

Ever since we live in together in my house 2 years ago my room has become messier with many of your stuff lying around, lots and lots of long brown hair, sitting on the floor and even my queen size hard as rock bed has shrunk and my favorite side of bed has become yours. You gradually took over my entire room, I literally surrender my entire room to you. But through all these time, I learnt to tolerate untidyness and messiness.

I learned to sleep with quilt instead of blanket and because of you I discovered a different side of me. I began to like cats, enjoyed singing, watching Tagalog movies, swear in Tagalog and watch Raffy Tulfo even though I have no idea what he is saying most of the time. I learnt so much about the Filipino culture because of you. We cheer and share the joy whenever Manny Pacquiao won the fight or when a Filipino contestant win in international pageant. I share your Pinoy pride. And most importantly you make me learn how to live, laugh and love deeply and completely.

As we begin our new chapter as husband and wife, as team mates, as soulmates as partners in crime or as what people say, "You are my Bonnie to my Clyde". I promise these 5 things to you.

1st, I promise not to cause you any injuries anymore be it physical or emotional injuries. And I will massage your feet every night with Tiger Balm.

2nd, I promise we will have lots of cats and dogs in our future house and ofcourse bunnies as well, that's us right?

3rd, I promise to support you in whatever you do. Be it starting your online business, pursuing an MBA degree or even your lifelong dream of singing in a part-time lounge.

4th, I promise if we have a boy we will groom him to be like Bruno Mars and if we have a girl we will sign up her for beauty pageants provided if she has my eyes, my nose, your lips, my skin and face shape but ofcourse last and most important of all - your intelligence.

Last but not least, I promise to always say I love you everyday, followed by kisses before we sleep. First thing in the morning when we wake up, before we leave for work and everytime I see you after work.

With these 5 promises, I just want to say "Mahal na mahal kita". I love you.

MARRIAGE VOWS

We've been through a lot all these years and I am confident that we will be able to face anything that comes in our way. Maybe I can't live to love you as long as I want to but I can love you as long as I live.

Happy 4th anniversary my bunny!

I love you!

Damien when I met you, I was in a dark place. It was probably the reason why love never worked on us the first time. Even though you broke my heart once before, it turned out well in the end. You made me realized my self worth and with that I learned how to love myself more. And I can never thank you enough for that. I guess, we were meant to part ways only to meet again at the right time, when we are ready.

I promise to continue being your team mate and cheerleader. To be here for you all the time and to support you in reaching your dreams and ours together. I promise to be with you always, to care for you, and to love and cherish you no matter how near or far apart we may be.

"The group of us there have known the groom for almost 20 years. I've known him since secondary school. We went travelling around the world and we did so many things together. And I am so happy for both of them together."

"I am very happy for you to finally found Catherine. Now you are together. I've seen you all fight for each other's love, been through ups and downs. I'm very happy for y'all that you are finally married together. Take good care of Catherine. I can see how much she loves you. I always think that you will be wonderful also. You'll be lucky to have someone like her love you so take good care of her, I believe you will."

"First of all I would like to thank Cath and I am very honored that you chose me to be one of your maid of honors and to be part of the biggest day of your life. After 2 years (they planned this 2 years) of wedding planning, we are finally here. And thank you so much Damien for bringing to life my bestfriend's wedding. I know this is hard for you, especially on Damien's side. You guys have to wear those Prince Charming costumes. Thank you so much for granting my bestfriend's wish.

For everyone's reference, Cath and I go back years. And I actually lost count. Is it 13, 11, 12? I've lost count. For me she is the sweetest, smartest, kindest, hard working, determined and most generous friend I ever had. She's my ultimate drinking buddy. So you know. My go-to everything. My love guru. She usually gives me love advice. When she left for Singapore to work 7 years ago, she left me in the Philippines. I was sad but then again, she's my bestfriend so I have to support her. I know working here in Singapore is good for her, so I support her just like any bestfriend will do. Fast forward. The first time Damien flew to the Philippines to meet us. Do you remember? Damien when you first visited, can you tell me what I asked you to do? "You asked me to eat Balut". Balut is a fermented duck. So I asked him to eat balut to prove if he really love my friend. That's why you got my approval because you ate the balut. Do you believe that? Of course I approved of you because I saw how Cath was so happy when she was with you. For the past relationships she had here in Singapore, no one ever dare to go to the Philippines and join her for a vacation especially to meet our group of friends who were kinda weird.. kinda.. we love drinking and it's unusual.

Damien, for you, salamat for taking care and loving my bestfriend. I witnessed how patient you had been with her especially when you guys are not okay. You are still consistent and not leaving her side no matter how mad she is with you. Thank you for giving her the love she deserved. For being that Prince Charming she has been waiting for her whole life.

And to Cath, I am the most happiest bestfriend today. I don't care about nCov. Even I have to be quarantined back home, it's okay. Because I wouldn't miss your special day. 14 days is rest day for me, wooh! So it's okay. And you know I love you and I wouldn't miss this special day of yours. Best Wishes and Congratulations Cath and Damien. And if you guys are planning to have a baby, please wait for 2 years. I need to save up for ticket again. Is it okay? Thank you and I love you both.

BRIDE'S MAN OF HONOR SPEECH

For that Damien I want to say thank you for being patient with my bestfriend, thank you for understanding her, for making her happy and most of all for loving her and choosing to stay with her everyday.

First I would like to say to the both of you that I'm so happy to be part of this wonderful wedding. You are so lucky to have found each other. Of all places, in WeChat. Yes, I recommended for Cath to use WeChat and she found Damien there. And time has proven that you are really meant for each other. I know that you've been through a lot together. Cath and I had a lot of late night conversations about it. She has cried so many times but she has never given up because Damien has never given up on her.

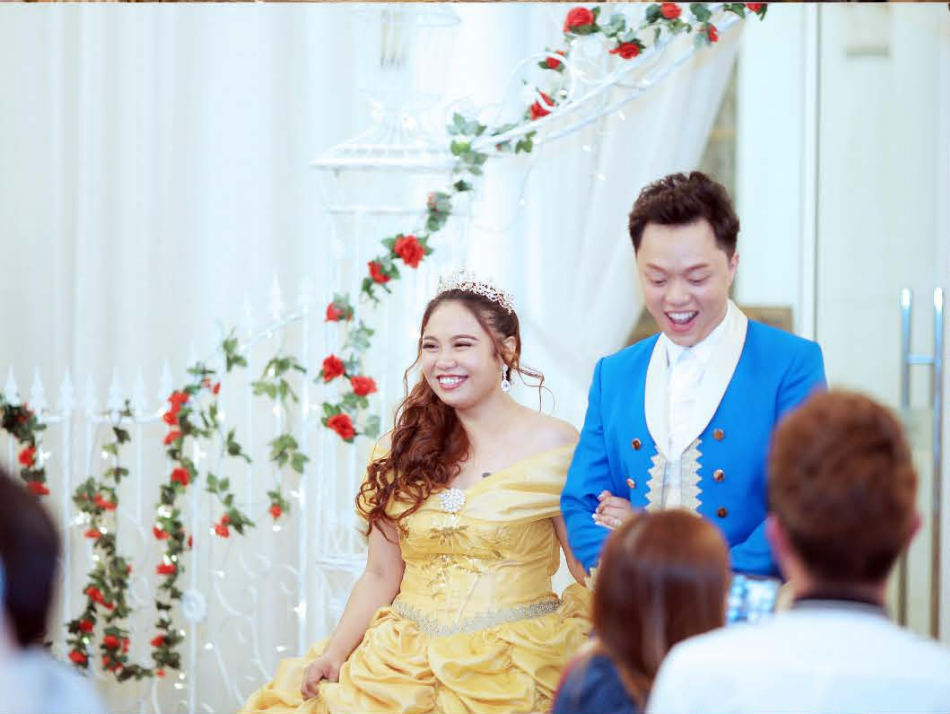

Cath, we've been friends for forever. We've been miles away from each other but you always make sure that we never lost touch no matter how busy our lives get. You have showed me how to be strong and see life more realistically and for that I am very grateful. I know my parents who are both in heaven are so proud that I have a bestfriend like you. I know they are very happy for you as of this moment. One thing for sure is that our friendship is the one thing that I can hold on to until the end of time.

Today is a wonderful start for the rest of your married life. It's not always gonna be butterflies and rainbows. There will be some cloud days and some rain. But I pray that your love for each other and your faith will get you through. Always choose to love one another despite of. I love you both. I'm not gonna make this long anymore and I look forward to having more travels with you. Cheers everyone, thank you!
